 "Before attending the Power Retrieval workshop, I suffered from fibromyalgia, endometriosis, asthma, and allergies. I was taking many medications and suffering greatly. Now, I am off all my medications, my doctor confirmed there is no more allergy, and I feel great! Thank you for changing my life."

During this weekend workshop, Molly will expertly guide you in reclaiming this power, also known as chi, prana or soul essence using shamanic ceremony, fascial movement and journeying. She is masterful at holding space, and creating a safe and supportive community environment. Living with this power means being in the flow of life; it means experiencing your wholeness, vitality, and wellness. Join us, and re-discover the power that is your birthright!

 “After the Power Retrieval, I started to feel very independent, stronger, and much more whole. I now feel like I am so much more comfortable being who I really am. I have participated in spiritual work before, but the work that I have done with you has been so life altering for me it's just incredible.
 Thank you!!!!”
